New Court Cases

Martha A. Mills vs. Charles O. Mills, divorce. Couple were married in Akron Sept. 4, 1900, and have no children. Plaintiff charges defendant has been guilty of habitual drunkenness for more than ten years; charges neglect of duty for the past six years, and claims that when intoxicated defendant used vile and insulting language, and was guilty of extreme cruelty. Defendant now resides at 86 W. State St., Akron, O.
Lillie A. Wilson vs. James Wilson, divorce, custody of children and equitable relief. The couple were married at Seville, Sept. 28, 1904, and four children were born to the union, all of whom are living. Plaintiff charges defendant with gross neglect of duty and wilful absence for more than three years, failing to provide for her support or that of the children. Plaintiff has been forced to reside with her parents. The Wilsons were living at Wendell, Idaho, when plaintiff was persuaded to visit her parents in Homer township on defendant's promise to furnish her transportation for her return. While at her parents' home a child was born, and since this time she has failed to hear from defendant. J. W. Seymour is attorney for plaintiff.
Alvin Schantz vs. Desdemona Rowley, partition of real estate. Defendant is tenant in common with plaintiff in nine properties in Medina county. One half of said premises belong to defendant, who is a sister of Kathryn Beeman, deceased. Plaintiff avers that personal property of deceased is sufficient to pay all debts and asks court to grant his interest severally or sell premises according to law.
Henry Derhammer vs. Elmore Liston, appeal. Transcript from the civil docket of G. O. Haury, justice of peace, in and for York township filed, in which Derhammer had obtained a judgment against plaintiff for $8685.

Docket Entries

Alpha M. Gould vs. Claud E. Varney, et al, quiet title, partition, equitable relief. Title quieted as prayed for in partition. Partition ordered.
Wannetta Freese vs. Sylvia Houseworth, et al, partition and equitable relief. Report of commissioners in partition returned and sale ordered.
Sealia J. Phillips vs. Ralph E. Phillips, divorce, custody of minor child, equitable relief and alimony. Dismissed without prejudice at plaintiff's cost. No record.
